COUNCIL-MANAGER PLAN

Why it Was Adopted, And What it Has Accomplished in Other Cities.

Statistics show that the cost of governing the incorporated places in the U. S., of 8,000 population and over, exceeds $1,100,000,000 to a cost nearly $130,000,000 in excess of their annual revenues. The commission form of government, and later the Commission-Manager or Council Manager form of government, (which meets the defects of the Commission Plan), were evolved and turned to by cities who had enlarged their floating debts until they were practically in a state of bankruptcy.

Springfield, Ohio, population 60,000 in their first year of the Council-Manager Plan, reduced their floating debt from $120,000 to $40,000. In the first two years the floating debt of $120,000 was liquidated, and the tax rate lowered from $1.50 to $1.31.

Niagara Falls, New York, population 55,000. The assessment scheme was radically changed and the property is now assessed by the block system, instead alphabetically, and at very close [illegible]tion. By this change the [illegible] purposes was reduced to $10.57, in spite of increase due to war expenses, and phenomenal growth of a manufacturing city.

Jackson, Michigan, population 45,-

CHICAGO POLICE NEED HELP

Murder of Girl on Street Brings Forth Appeal.

Chicago, April 19.—The murder of a young woman in the street on the West Side Thursday night by an unidentified man caused Chief of Police Garrity to appeal to the City Council today for additional patrolmen to suppress the wave of crime which has swept over the city for several days.

A witness to the slaying of the young girl told the police the couple were walking together and the man placed his arm around the girl. She broke away and ran across the street but was quickly overtaken by the man, who drew a revolver and, grasping the girl by the hair, fired four shots into her head and then disappeared.

There were no marks of identification on the body except the name "Emily" on her underwear, but from the appearance of her clothing the police believe she was a working girl.

N. H. HIGINBOTHAM KILLED

Once Marshall Field & Co., Partner and World's Fair President

New York, April 19.—Harlow Niles Higinbotham, aged 80, a former partner in the firm of Marshall Field & Co., of Chicago, died last night in the embarkation hospital at the Grand Central Palace, where he had been taken earlier in the day, after having been run down by an automoile at Madison avenue and Forty-fifth street.

Mr. Higinbotham and his daughter, Mrs. R. P. Crane, had been guests for the past two weeks at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. He was crossing Madison avenue when he was knocked down by an army automobile, the driver of which took him with all speed to the base hospital.

The deceased was widely known as president of the World's Columbian Exposition held in Chicago in 1893.

APPROVES DEATH OF SON

Boy Alleged to Have Killed 70-Year Old Druggist

Chicago, April 19.—"The man who did that job ought to hang," said Policeman Patrick D. Ryan, veteran of the force, when he read of the shooting early yesterday of Emil A. Zahn, 70 year old druggist.

"Whether it was my own boy or not, they ought to hang him," he operated when, later in the day, he was told his 19 year old son, Daniel Ryan, had confessed to shooting the man who resisted the young bandit in an attempted hold up.

19 KILLED IN EXPLOSION

Naples, April 19.—Nineteen persons were killed and twenty-five injured when a car laden with naptha exploded in the port freight station here. Most of the victims were Austrian war prisoners. Many buildings were damaged.

VICTORY LOAN DRIVE READY

Campaign Will Be Launched Monday and End May 10

COMMITTEES ACTIVE

Bonds Pay Four and Three Quarters Per Cent—Best Investment in Bonds Ever Offered.

All is in readiness for the opening for business of the Victory Loan. Preparations have been completed by the local committee of arrangements of which R. S. Jones, is chairman. The various sub committees have been working hard completing the details for the big campaign which will open April 21 and end May 10.

There is every indication that the loan will meet with success in this city. No efforts will be spared by the committee in charge to see that Alexandria "goes over the top" as she has done in all previous campaigns. The rate of interest on these bonds is 4.75 per cent which is greater than any of the previous bond issues. There is no better investment to be found in the world than these bonds and there is no cause more worthy of the general support of the citizens in general than the purchase of these bonds. Every man, woman and child in the city should own, at least, one or more of these bonds.

The chairman and vice chairman of the committee in charge last Tuesday attended the state convention of chairmen on Victory bond at a meeting held in Richmond. In addition to the picture entitled, "The Price of Peace," which will be exhibted here tomorrow, as told in another column of this paper, the committee later will have a tank from the battlefields of Europe on exhibition.

The numerous placards and posters, all of a very attractive variety scattered throughout the city, show the activity of the committee on posters and placards, and the meetings including the presentation of the "Price of Peace" shows that the committee on public meetings and arrangements is actively at work.

Booths for Sals of Bonds

The work of the moving picture committee speaks for itself. The committee on booths has had constructed a number of booths which will be opened Monday at the banks postoffices, railway station and a number of stores.

Committee Activities

The official flag of the Victory Liberty Loan with its blue V with a white background thrown to the breezes on King street proclaims the work of the street banner committee.

Both the labor and fraternal committees are actively engaged in making final preparations for the drive.

Speakers are now being chosen by the committee on four minute men who will arrange for speeches at all public gatherings durng the progress of the drive.

The woman's committee has been busy with its plans of organizing. The women in all previous campaigns have done splendid work and they expect to surpass their record in the coming drive.

The honor roll committee for business houses and organizations and the committee on honor roll for subscribers is actively on the job as also are the various other committees, and with all the committees prepared for action there can be no doubt but what Alexandria will "go over the top," as already stated she has done in all previous campaigns.

Value of Bonds Increased

Every prospective bond purchaser should remember that the rate of interest paid on the new issue of bonds is four and three quarters per cent instead of four and one quarter in the last loan. This, therefore means that every bond purchased this time is worth exactly $10 more to the owner than the last issue of bonds.

Committees In Charge.

The committees in charge of the drive follows: Robert S. Jones, chairman; Judge Samuel G. Brent and Julian Y. Williams, vice chairmen; J. T. Preston, secretary; Howard W. Smith and Michael T. Dwyer, committee on publicity; Charles R. Morris, O. H. Kirk, Wallace Lindsey, Char-

PICTURES TOMORROW

Price of Peace to be Shown Three Times

All arrangements have been completed for showing the greatest of all war films three times on Sunday, at the Richmond Theatre in the afternoon at three o'clock and again at eight o'clock, and at the Ingomar at eight o'clock.

This picture is owned by the United States Government. It is to be used throughout the country in the Victory Liberty Loan Campaign and Alexandria will lead all Virginia cities in its use. The three showings have been arranged by the local committee to give to every citizen an opportunity to see the American soldiers, sailors and marines actually engaged in battle. The dead men in this picture are really dead and many of them were killed while the picture was being made.

You will see the artillery raking in St. Mihiel Hill. You will see the German fleet in line to be surrendered to America and her Allies. The great observation balloons with their telephonic communication are shown. A glimpse of everything from embarkation here, scenes of the battles over there and the return of the troops to their native land.

A Virginian, A. B. Carrington, who was a soldier "Over There" brings the picture to this city and he will address the audience as the representative of the Central Committee which is in charge of the Victory Liberty Loan Campaign in the State of Virginia.

An address will be delivered by the Honorable Henry B. F. MacFarland, former commissioner of the District of Columbia.

Music will be furnished by a large orchestra from the United States Navy.

Children will not be admitted unless accompanied by parents. This is a federal government picture and there will not be any admission charge. The theatre doors will be opened thirty minutes before each show and closed when all seats are taken.

Anti-Saloon League May Appeal to U. S. State Department

Temperance leaders in the United States are concerned by the attitude of the English authorities in refusing to permit literature or speakers on behalf of the cause to enter British territory. It is probable the matter will be taken up with the State Department to ascretain if some understanding cannot be reached by which the British restrictions will be put aside.

It is stated by officials of the Anti-Saloon League that not only have passports been denied to their lecturers and campaigners, but that their official publication, the American Issue, has been stopped by the mail censors in Great Britain from being distributed to subscribers. Inquiry as to why this action was taken is said to have brought no satisfactory reply.

It was said at the State Department that England had made a formal request of the United States government that such persons be not permitted to go to England. This explanation has since been denied in England, Winston Churchill having declared in reply to an interrogatory in Parliament that the passports were not denied at Great Britain's request.

Nevertheless, it is said, the ban against prohibiton advocates still exists and England will not permit any such persons to enter.

All Citizens Invited to Railway Station to See Trophies of the Great War.

The Victory Liberty Loan Committee announces that the trophy train will arrive in this city at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and remain here until 5 o'clock. The arrival of the train will be announced by the ringing of the fire bells and blowing of whistles. A military band and soldiers from overseas will accompany the train. WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

Four houses were razed by fire, and a fifth was torn down to save the settlement of Clark Station, Va., from destruction this morning. As a result, one woman is dead, one man severely burned, and five families are homeless. The property loss is estimated at $5,000.

The fire originated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Coleman, colored, at 6:30 oclock. Coleman had left the house to chop wood for a fire in his stove on the second floor. Mrs. Coleman, mistaking gasoline for kerosene, poured the liquid into the fire. In a moment the house was ablaze. Coleman heard his wife scream and saw the flames. He ran up the stairs. Mrs. Coleman appeared, her garments afire. Coleman reached for her, but she fell back into the flames. Her husband was forced to flee.

Three Year Old Girl Has Suffered No Ill Effects Yet

Waynesboro, Pa., April 19.—Nancy Hoover, 3 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hoover, of Chambersburg, swallowed a lizard Thursday in the garden of their home.

The reptile was about four inches long and was found by her father, who was digging in the garden. When he returned from the house, where he went to get a spade, he found the child choking on the lizard, which was in her throat, He attempted to pull the reptile out and the tail came off, allowing the lizard to drop down her throat. RIOTING IN MILAN

Socialists And Anti Socialists Clash. Four Killed.

Milan, Italy, April 19.—Four persons were killed and several wounded during disorders here Wednesday incident to clashes between Socialists and anti-Socialist groups.

The offices of the Socialist newspaper Avanti were wrecked in the fighting. The workmen of Milan, Bologna, Turin and Genoa, the principal manufacturing cities of Northern Italy, began a 24 hour strike today.

The police and the military were powerless for a time to prevent collisions between the Socialists and the anti-Socialists. The anti-Socialists went to the offices of the Avanti, and a revolver shot fired from a window of the building killed a soldier. The opposition crowd rushed into the building and smashed the furniture and machinery. Military reinforcements restored order.

TRIES TO BURN SHIPS

Sets Fire to Teuton Steamer as it Nears Boston With Over 2,000 Yanks Aboard

Boston, April 19.—A German agent, allowed on the transport Patricia to look out for German property, attempted to set fire to the vessel Wednesday night as it was nearing Boston with more than 2,000 American soldiers, according to Major Frank W. Cavahaugh, of the One Hundred and Second Field Artillery, one of the officers on board.

The man had been locked in a stateroom because of his actions. When a guard left the room the German, whose name was given as Fisher, is alleged to have manipulated electric wires in usch a way as to start a blaze in the stateroom. The guard found a lively fire burning when he returned.

Members of the crew extinguished the fire and Fisher was placed in irons. The German was one of five of his country men placed on board the Patricia to watch the Hamburg American Line's property. He was formerly a second officer on a German merchant ship.

PREPARES FOR ACTION

Paris, April 19.—Military experts under the director of Marshal Foch have been charged with the drafting of a report on what should be done in the event that Germany refuses to sign the treaty of peace.

It is indicated that the methods of coercion which the allies would adopt may include the occupation of more German territory, the blockade of enemy ports and the discontinuance of food supplies to Germany.

WOMEN URGE PUNISHMENT

WOMEN MAKE DEMAND

Petition Signed by 15,000 Urge Vengeance For Deportation of French.

Paris, April 19.—The plan of the Council of Four to have Belgium prosecute the former German Emperor on the charge of responsibility for the war is meeting with objections which are again bringing up the whole subject for revision.

Those who have the matter in hand divide the question of war responsibilities into two distinct classes. The first class includes military and naval offenders, like General Ludendorff and Admiral von Tirpitz, and those accused of various excesses against the usual rules of warfare. The second class includes former Emperor William, ex-Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and others whose offense is chiefly of a political nature.

Concerning the first class, that of military offenders, it is agreed that there is no international court-martial suitable to undertake such military trials, but it is pointed out that every country has its own system of court-martial for military offenses committed within its borders. This has developed the suggestion that these countries combine their courts-martial and act under a single military procedure codified from all the

EASTER SUNDAY

The civilized world will celebrate Easter this year with greater spirit than they did one year ago. The outcome of the war was at that time uncertain. German hordes, then engaged in their last drive, were passing over parts of France as a prairie fire. Their "smashes" were making havoc with civilization. The allies, sorely pressed, were falling back before their fierce antagonists—fighting with their backs to the wall. The prospect was gloomy. The tide was four months turning. The indication that it was weakening, subsequently flowing feebly, and finally reaching a standstill sent thrills of delight into every honest soul. The recession was soon in evidence, when the tidal wave began to rush back. The ebb continued until near the end of the year, when the would-be conquerors of the world acknowledged they were vanquished.

Easter is one of the most joyous of our festivals. It commemorates a fact upon which our Christian faith hinges—the resurrection of the Author and Finisher of our faith.

The Son of God appeared ten times after having been cruelly put to death. There is no fact in history better attested.

There is an old story which tells of two young English lords, both highly educated, but unfortunately skeptics who laughed at those who believed in Jesus of Nazareth. Being together on one occasion, they each agreed to write a pamphlet deriding the Christian religion. One said his publication would show the absurdity of the resurrection of Christ; the other said he would prove that Paul was a fanatic and had simply been blinded by lightning while on his way to Damascus.

In order to carry out their purpose it was necessary for each to read the New Testament closely. When the books appeared, instead of arguing against the facts stated, the writers corroborated everything claimed by the evangelists concerning Christ, while the peer who intended to show that the Apostle to the Gentiles was a deluded man, took the ground that he saw and heard all he states.

The young lords took the ground that the early disciples would not have suffered all they did had they not been positive of the resurrection of Christ, nor would Paul have forfeited his position among the Jews and suffered as he did had he not received his commission from the Holy One of Israel.

One of the writers was the famous Lord Littleton; we are unable to recall the name of the other.

WHY WE SHOULD SUBSCRIBE

We again face the call of the nation for a great bond issue to meet some of the expenses connected with the gigantic task of stopping the world conflagration and of saving our loved ones and of saving civilization itself says the Manufacturers' Record. "Shall we be narrow enuogh to say that the war is over and we do not propose to bear our share of the burden? Perhaps the war is not over. Perhaps we are not satisfied with all that has been done or that is being done. Even then we would have no justification for withholding our utmost subscription to Victory Bonds. Our honor is at stake, and honor is as precious as life.

"Three years ago the mightiest conflagration in human history was sweeping over civilization. It had destroyed millions of loved ones; it had wrecked womanhood and childhood; it had destryed billions of property, and the hot breath of the flames were sweeping across the Atlantic to our shores. We were in more danger than the man whose house is next door to a raging fire. Indeed, the very fires of Hell had been turned loose on earth and the sulphuric fumes from Germany's atrocities were filling our land.

"When the nation officially awakened to this situation it became necessary, disregarding everything in the past, to meet the rush of the oncoming flames with the utmost power of all the force we could put into the fight. We could not stop to count whether there was a little leak in this pipe on that, whether this engine was the very best one that could possibly be used or not; we had to call into service every ounce of strength, every available man and drive the engine of the war machinery entirely without regard to the little things which might stand in the way from the narrow viewpoint of picayunish economy. Our existence, like the very existence of civilization, was at stake. Had the Administration halted at every question of expense, had it pursued a cheeseparing policy of waiting to find out whether this plant or that plant could be built for a few dollars less; had it stopped to consider whether this shipyard or that shipyard would be a permanent investment, it would have justly called down upon itself the condemnation of the entire nation. Be it said to the everlasting credit of the Administration, that when Washington once realized the stupendous issue at stake and the magnitude of the fight that must be made, it was not halted by the question of cost nor by any narrow spirit which in trying to save a few dollars might have lost the very life of the nation.

"In gratitude to Almighty God that He saved this country from the conflagration that swept over most of Europe, we should not for one moment begrudge the fact that here and there some broken pipe permitted the leaking of a little water or some engine was slightly strained. We should have expected these things under the circumstances."

WOMEN DEMAND JUSTICE

Fifteen thousand French women have sent a petition to the Peace Conference demanding that German officials, those who issued barbaric orders as well as those who carried them out, be made to pay the full penalty for their crimes. The petitioners say:

"In spite of the most elementary laws of humanity, thousands of women, girls and children of every condition were systematically abducted from their families and were forced to submit to the most odious treatment. We women of France with bleeding and broken hearts demand justice from the Peace Conference on behalf of our martyred sisters.

"To prevent such crimes from ever being perpetrated again we demand that those guilty of them be punished like ordinary criminals. We trust you will exact full justice from Germany and her allies. We are nearing the anniversary of the day, April 23, 1916, when that odious deed against which the women of all nations protest was carried out, and we firmly trust that another year will not elapse before the guilty are punished, both those who issued the order from Berlin and those who executed it in the most brutal way."

HORRORS OF BOLSHEVISM

Madame Roland when she, exclaimed, "O, Liberty! Liberty! What crimes are committed in thy name;" uttered words as true as in the days of the French Terror. A recent dispatch told us that it was now an article of belief among the Russian revolutionists that it was not consistent with true freedom to be restrained by opinion or conscience or honor, and hence indescribable orgies are of public occurrence.

Three agents of the American Red Cross have obtained precise information of the massacre of about 2,000 persons in and around the Siberian town of Osa by the Bolshevists. The Central authority justified itself a few months ago by stating solemnly that not more than 13,000 persons had been executed by the formal orders of the Soviets. This did not pretend to include the individual and unauthorized killings.

Communism is as far beyond Socialism as that is beyond conventional morality. If one champions free love, the other demands free lust.

Among all the freaks of mentality and morality nothing is more singular, more incomprehensible, than the sympathy of persons who could not drown a kitten or shoot a puppy with murderous and licentious human beats of prey who denuonce capitalism and shout for liberty.

It was a well dressed and very likely a religious woman, fastidious about her personal contact, and unwilling to cause even a mouse a violent death, who interrupted the proceedings in the British House of Commons this week by exclaiming: "We want the Soviet!"

KEEP THEM AT HOME

It may be that Julius Fischer, an agent of the Hamburg-American Steamship Line, who set fire to the transport Patricia as she was nearing Boston with 3,000 American soldiers on board, is insane. But Fischer's act bears a curious family likeness to the organized "insanity" of Prussianism which set the world on fire, and which made horror and barbarism a part of its military code for more than four years. Fischer's mentality as well as his antecedents should be subjected to the most searching investigation, and a stern example should be made of him, if he is shown to be sane. There still survive, probably, a good many other Prussians troubled with the same form of insanity. The American people will not tolerate false leniency in a case like this.

Fischer was one of a number of Germans allowed to remain on board this and other liners turned over for transportation purposes to the United States in accordance with the recent agreement with Germany. They were assigned, it sems, to the duty of representing "the interests of the owners." This same reason is given in explanation of the presence of six German officers on the Hamburg-American liner Kaisenin Auguste Victoria, which has just reached New York with American soldiers. None of these was stricken with sudden insanity, but in view of the national tendency to that sort of thing and of what happened to Fischer, either such escorts ought to be prohibited in future or they should be kept under surveillance.

Can't these ships be navigated without German help? If the 3,000 American soldiers on the Patricia had been burned to death, the storm of popular wrath which followed the sinking of the Lusitania would have been as nothing in comparison. Would it not be wiser to keep the former Kaiser's lunatics at home? —(Baltimore Sun.

Editor Alexandria Gazette:

Dear Sir:

In reply to the letter of the Honorable James R. Caton signed as chairman for some "Citizens Committee," I would respectfully say: This letter is headed:

"One Man Power Abolished."

That is just what Mr. Caton and his associates are not attempting to do; they are attempting to establish "one man power." He uses the name of Woodrow Wilson in his letter. That is a name, undoubtedly, to conjure with, but the quotation from a supposed statement of Woodrow Wilson has no application to the conditions in the city of Alexandria.

The Wild Man of Borneo, when ruling amongst his naked citizens, would have probably published his system of Govenment headed as was Mr. Caton's article, "One Man Power Abolished."

Some days ago, I wrote an article in the Gazette asking that the advocates of a "One Man Boss Rule" in the city of Alexandria would point out how their "Boss" would accomplish an "Arcadia" in the city of Alexandria. I asked that alleged defects in the city government should be pointed out; and I stated, that I would undertake to point out some other remedy than the recently imported "Boss" plan.

I note your letter is marked for publication one time. May I ask if the Chamber of Commerce is paying for this advertisement? May I also ask of Mr. Caton, who signs himself as Chairman of the Citizens Committee of Alexandria, what if any part "Th Chamber of Commerce" has to do with this nebulous plan, which is being advocated. If the Citizens Committee, represented by Mr. Caton, as ther Chairman, think any sensible person would vote for an indefinite plan of city government, utterly foreign to our institutons, I anticipate that this citizens committee, who ever they may be, will be very much mistaken.

If the Chamber of Commerce is being used for this purpose, I am afraid that its usefulness, which has been of vast benefit to our city, will be much curtailed.

Editor of Gazette:

During my entire business experience, covering a period of over twenty years, it has been my purpose to avoid newspaper discussion, and for the first time I find it necessary to publicly defend a position in which I have been placed. The indirect statements reflecting upon the remunerative value of the company, in which I am interested, is to the city which I and my entire family and associates have adopted as their permanent home, made in last night's issue of your paper, is grossly misleading, and for the purpose of supporting this assertion, I desire to give these authentic figures concerning the payment of taxes by the Alexandria Amusement Company, of which I am the manager:

$574.80 city tax; $496.00 State tax; $500 Seating tax to the U. S. Government; $1098 Film Tax to the U. S. Government; Total $2,662.80.

None of the above items include tax paid by the public for its own amusement, as we act merely as agents for the Government in collecting this tax, further more, it does not include the State and City tax on realty and personalty owned by our Company.

The writer, of an editorial in your paper of a few issues ago, saw fit to state that these Carnival Companies pay a State Tax of $250 a week and $15.00 for each side-show. This, no doubt, is the law, but in reference to the carnival now showing, this statement is by no means correct, as investigation will disclose. It is my understanding that inasmuch as these carnivals playing in the city, both this and last week, are doing so under the auspices of two very worthy organizations, and that the proceeds will be devoted to charity, of which I have no criticism, whatever, but, on the other hand, commend these organizations for endeavoring to so replenish their charity fund, that the sufferings of Alexandria's poor may be alleviated during the critical times which appear not to be far distant. Such acts as these show a spirit of unquestionable patriotism and humane inclinations, but I am convinced that no fair-minded person in Alexandria will attempt to deny the right to those so financially interested, to protect themselves against daily loss when occasions, such as those now under discussion, arise.

No merchant or tax-payer can sit idly by and remain unconcerned when he sees conditions arising that must necessarily mean financial embarrassment, hence, full justfication is found for the acts of those gentlemen who are seeking to curtail, at least, a part of their loss by advocating a legitimate safeguard.

In conclusion, permit me to remind those persons, who are inclined to take issue with the signers of the petition that not only are the above taxes paid for one year, but are to be paid for many years in the future, all of which is and will become a fixed asset to the city of Alexandria without fluctuation. Protection is due each of those who feel honestly entitled to such protection, and the same should not be denied.

Manager, Alexandria Amusement Company operating Richmond and Ingomar Theatres and Richmond Bowling alleys.

A SPLENDID TONIC

Says Hixon Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn., —"About 10 years ago I was," says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place, "I sufferd with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side.

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try som more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommended it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

PRAISED BY THE CARDINAL

War Work of Salvation Army Indorsed by Him

New York, April 19.—Cardinal Gibbons praises the war work of the Salvation Army, here and abroad, in a letter made public last night by former Governor Charles S. Whitman, of New York, chairman of the national committee of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund.

"I rejoice in the splendid service which the Salvation Army rendered our soldier and sailor boys during the war," said the Cardinal. "Every returning trooper is a willing witness to the efficient and generous work of the Salvation Army, both on the front and in the camps at home. I am also the more happy to commend this because it is free from sectarian bias. The man in need of help is the object of their efforts, with never a question of his creed or color."

LOCATES GAS LEAK

Youth Uses Lighted Candle, and Causes Explosion.

New York, April 19.—Eighteen-year old Raymond Anderson met with almost instant success Wednesday night when he sought for leaking gas in the home of Dr. Homer P. Marsh, 305 West One Hundred and Thirty-sixth street, with a lighted match. In the explosion and fire which resulted the physician and his wife, Bertha, and Anderson were badly burned about the hands and face, nearly all of the widows were smashed and the third floor was wrecked.

Anderson was engaged in removing gas fixtures to supplant them with electric wiring. He had completed his work for the day and was about to start for his home when Mrs. Marsh said she smelled gas. The young man was positive she was mistaken, and to prove it he took a match and candle to the third floor. The doctor and his wife followed.

A few moments after Anderson had struck the match an ambulance arrived from a sanatorium and took Dr. Marsh and his wife there. After Anderson's burns were dressed he went home.

GERMANY WANTS INDEMNITY.

Paris, April 19.—Germany intends to claim an indemnity from the Allies, according to the Frankfort Gazette. It says the German negotiators at Versailles will ask payment for damages sustained from aerial attacks, from the occupation of German territory by the Allied troops and the delay in concluding peace, causing a prolongation of the Bolshevik and Spartacan trouble.

American Red Cross Mission Finds Thousands Starving and Dying of Disease

Warsaw, April 19.—Pitiful tales of the distress and suffering through out Eastern and Southeastern Poland were brought here by members of the American Red Cross Mission who have just returned from an eight day tour of inspection, during which they covered 1,500 miles and distributed food, clothing and medicines in twenty cities and numerous villages. Everywhere they found typhus, the ravages of which had practically wiped out whole towns, and in a great many places smallpox and trachoma were prevalent, epidemics of the latter diseases threatening because of the manner in which sick nad well are herded together in many homes.

In many of the isolated villages starving peasants lined the roadside and begged for food. For weeks they had been living on an imitation bread made from potato peelings, dirty rye and the bark of trees, but when the Red Cross arrived the supply of these ingredients had been exhausted. The greatest suffering and destitution was encountered in Pinsk, situated in the unhealthy Pripet marshes, 200 miles east of Warsaw. In four years the population of Pinsk has been reduced from 50,000 to 25,000, and of the latter 500 are down with typhus, lacking medical attendance and proper nursing care. Disease and hunger were found in every house visited. An inspection of the orphan asylum disclosed sixty children afflicted with typhus. Five of sixteen occupants of one house succumbed to the disease in one week.

separate military codes. A joint court-martial would thus be constituted, capable of dealing with offenders of the first or military and naval class.

Concerning the political offenders, it is said that a tribunal is not necessary and would be ineffective, owing to the legal immunity of political offenders. Therefore it is maintained that the acton against Napoleon I furnishes a precedent for the determination of the Allied course as a general measure of policy.

In the case of Napoleon there was no trial, but he was confined on the Island of St. Helena as a general measure of policy for the tranquility of Europe. Some such general policy is designed to reach ex-Emperor William and other political offenders with Belgium or another country against which the political offense charged were chiefly directed acting for the purpose of securing the extradition of the individual as a preliminary to putting the general policy into effect.

A petition asking for the punishment of the Germans responsible for the deportation of women from Lille Roubaix and Tourcoing in the spring of 1916 will soon be handed to the Peace Conference. It is signed by 15,000 women, including Mme Gaston Calmette and Mrs. Anna Roosevelt.

000. The first year found $380,000 worth of property exempt from taxation without legal reason. The purchasing department yielded great returns, and expenses for purchasing had been more than paid by cash discounts alone. During first two years plans saved the City over $125,000.

Wheeling, West Virginia, population 44,000, at the end of the first year under the Council-Manager Plan, with a decrease of revenue of over $12,000 had no outstanding warrants for the first time since October 1911, although the new government inherited $36,000 of un-paid warrants from the old system.

San Jose, California, population 40,000 ended first year with $21,000 unencumbered balance in treasury, without any increase in taxation or source of revenue.

St. Augustine, Florida, population 7,960. Finances placed on sound business basis. Floating debt reduced to $24,000. Purchasing centralized with material saving. Many improvements made under new system.

Yonkum, Texas, population 7,500. Decreased tax value 9 per cent; decreased tax rate 10 cents;decreased bonded indebtedness 12 per cent; increased permanent improvement out of general fund 25 per cent.

Fredericks, Virginia, population 7,000, wiped out floating debt of over $10,000 first year, and in four years reduced bonded debt over $25,000.

The meeting to be held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce Monday night, to discuss questions in regard to the City-Manager Plan of Government, as submitted by the citizens Committee, is attracting considerable attention. This matter is of deep interest to tax payers and voters, and has to do with the handling of the city's business. The citizens committee hopes that the attendance at this meeting will show that the citizens are taking proper interest in their affairs.

New Yorker Commits Suicide in Sight of Hundreds

New York, April 19.—An 11 story leap from a windowsill, in the view of hundreds of girl employes in a loft building across the street, was the method of suicide chosen yesterday by James C. Miner, formerly of Rome, N. Y., according to the police. Before leaping to his death Miner, salesman for a lumber firm in Oshkosh, Wis., paused on a ledge which faced Broadway at 25th street. Scores of nearby windows were opened by those who saw his purpose and women screamed. Miner's stenographer said he had been ill.

TO VISIT GREAT BRITAIN

Virginians Will Present Replica of Statue of Washington

The machinery of plans looking to presentation by the state of Virginia to the government of Great Britain and Ireland of a replica of Houdon's statue of Washington, deferred on account of the world war, again has been set in motion.

Presentation will be made as soon as practicable after signing of the peace pact in London by a commission of three appointed at the suggestion of the general assembly prior to the beginning of hostilities in 1914. Composing the commission are Governor Davis, Lieutenant Governor B. F. Buchanan, Harry R. Houston, speaker of the house of delegates, and Colonel John W. Williams, clerk of the house.

An act passed by the legislature in 1914 authorized the execution of a replica of the Houdon statue which reposes in the rotunda of the State Capitol for presentation to Great Britain and Ireland. The work was completed and was ready for delivery prior to the commencement of the war and, but for the conflict, would have been presented long before now. The statue was made by the Gorham company, of New York city.

A date for the departure of the commission will not be determined until after signing of the peace treaty. The statute will be placed near the entrance of the National art gallery facing Trasalgar square near the Nelson monument.

While details for the ceremonies were completed in 1914, other arrangements, it is said, will have to be made on account of changed conditions. These now are being whipped into shape.

The act of the general assembly authorizing the work provided also that provided that the governor, the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house and the clerk of the house compose the commission. It was learned yesterday that it is probable that the governor will not be a member of the commission and that he will name someone else to act as his personal representative. The same authority stated that it is not unlikely that the lieutenant governor, the speaker of the house and the clerk of the house will make the trip.

Great Britain, it is said, regards the pending exercises as a great national event and is making elaborate preparations for the ceremonies. Arrangements for the presentation were made through the secretary of state and the foreign minister of England, who then was Mr. Gray.

SHOOTS GIRL DEAD IN STREET; ESCAPES

Chicago, April 19.—While police are seeking identification of the body of a girl, apparently about eighteen years of age, the victim of a mysterious murder last night, detectives today are searching for a "well-dressed man, about 24 years old," who, following an altercation with the girl, fired two shots into her head and when she fell to the sidewalk leaned over the body and sent two more shots through her neck.

The couple were seen quarreling shortly after 9 o'clock on the street. The girl attempted to run from the man. He caught her by the hair and, placing a revolver close to her head, sent two shots crashing into her brain. After firing two more shots in the body, he fled, making his escape from a crowd of several hundred people attracted by the shooting.

The name "Emily" was found stamped on several articles of clothing worn by the dead girl.

TO REBURY EDITH CAVELL

England Will Pay Military Honors to Martyred Nurse.

London, April 19.—The body of Edith Cavell, the English nurse who was executed by the Germans in 1915 at Brussels, will be brought to England from Belgium on May 15, and taken to Westminster Abbey, where ceremonies will be held. The body will be brought to Dover on a warship and will be transported on a gun carriage with military escort to Victoria Station and thence to Westminster Abbey. Interment will be at Norwich, the home town of the Cavells.

COFFEE RUMS RIVAL

Traders And Planters to Point Out Coffee "Jag" Answers Purpose Of Alcholic Kind.

New York, April 19.—Confident that with the passing of hard liquors coffee will become the national drink of America, 400 coffee traders in this country are co-operating with planters in South America in plans to encourage consumption of this beverage.

It is planned to spend $1,200,000 in advertising to encourage coffee drinking in the United States. The advertising campaign will last four years. Brazilian coffee interests are especially interested in the scheme.

Beginning April 21, display advertisements in 306 daily newspapers located in 186 of the leading cities of the United States will begin to appear, according to those concerned in the campaign. Magazines and trade journals will also be used in spreading the coffee propaganda, it was said.

"The campaign is receiving far greater support than we expected," Ross W. Weir, chairman of the movement, declared today. "The coffee industry expects to be the chief beneficiary of the defunct rum industry. With prohibition, consumption of coffee in the United States should double or treble."

Establishment of coffee houses as social centers to replace the saloon will also be advocated by the boosters of the coffee campaign. They point out the fact that the cost of a cup of excellent nonintoxicating Mocha or Java is negligible compared to the present price of strong drink. And, in a pinch, a coffee "jag" will serve the same purpose as the other kind.

Coffee dealers at two conventions, one at Chicago April 2 and the other yesterday at Cleveland, unanimously decided to back the campaign.

GEMS TAKEN FROM WOMAN

Thief Opens Handbag and Steals Gems Valued at $3,000 Among Afternoon Crowds

Philadelphia, April 19.—Jewelry valued at $3,000, was stolen from a small handbag carried by Mrs. W. A. Holman, of Merchantville, N. J., near the corner of Chestnut and Eleventh streets, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Holman had just come from a jewelry store in Chestnut street where she had purchased three diamond rings and a pair of diamond earrings for $3,000. As she neared the corner her handbag was opened and a man escaped with the jewels in the crowd.

The thieves had apparently seen Mrs. Holman enter the store and had some inkling as to the nature of her purchases. Detectives McCarthy and Clark began an investigation.

VENI, VIDI, VICI

O'er run with sword and flame
Were the fertile fields of France;
'Till America heard her groanings
And tramp of the Huns advance.
For No Man's land was rent
And drenched with heroes blood;
Hence to avenge the innocents
Our khaki heroes stood.

Oh! Veni, Vidi, Vici.
'Twas our own blood we shed;
Now, democracy triumphant
Speaks, through our honor'd dead;
From Washington to Wilson
We've kept the torch ablaze;
The beacon light of liberty
Struck fetters off the slave.

From anvil, forge and plow
From Rockies peaks and glen;
They sprang to arms e'ere bugle
Called for a million men:
Scions of noble birth
Whose heritage bought with blood;
Remembered deeds of Lafayette
And by our Pershing stood.

Vini, vidi, vici.
Of our fallen ones tis said;
They came, they saw, they conquered
And, on country's altar bled;
Nor halted they one moment
When, stern duty bid them go;
No quivers playing on sturdy lips
Did America's manhood show.

Then spare not flags or bunting
Let guns in thunderous roar;
Combine with peals of belfrey
To welcome home once more;
The bulwarks of our country
Who dared both sub and wave;
Immortalized these heroes are
Burst fetters of Huns slave.

In democratic fashion
The peerless U. S. A.
Has sheathed the dripping blade
The Huns used for to slay;
Youngest nation on the globe
Of her, it now is said;
She came, she saw, she conquered
Then furnished her foes, their bread.

Today we doff our hats
To the khaki and the blue;
America's naval heroes
Tear no bloodthirsty crew;
They're not of common stock
We choose to plow the deep;
And through the howling tempest
Eternal watch to keep.

Bunker Hill and Boston common
Where Braddock met defeat;
King's Mountain and the Cow Pens
Whence Harleston beat retreat;
To Yorktown where Cornwallis
Made last ignoble stand;
Cost Geroge the 3rd his colonies
And democratized our land.

COAST TO COAST FLIGHT IN TWENTY HOURS

Fort Worth, Texas, April 19.—Maj. T. C. Macauley, commander of the Taliaferro field, who has flown from coast to coast in 24 hours at an average speed of 137 miles an hour, arrived here safely this morning from Jackson, Miss., where he spent Thursday night. He landed in his plane at 11:30 a. m.

Major Macauley flew 5,500 miles in 44 hours and 15 minutes. His flying time across the continent from San Diego to Jacksonville was 19 hours and 15 minutes, setting a new record. Of this distance, 680 miles were covered without a stop. This was from Tuscon, Ariz., to Sweetwater, Texas. He used a De Raviland plane with a Liberty motor. The motor, according to the airman, never missed a stroke and the only work done was to remove two dirty plugs.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorder, gravel, dropsical swelling, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by an Alexandria man.

Walter C. Dameron, railroad brakeman, 325 N. Columbus St., says: "My back often hurt so badly I had to lay off work. After I got down I couldn't straighten up again without sharp pains catching me across my kidneys. My back ached constantly and my kidneys acted too frequently during the night, so I had to get up every little while. When morning came I felt so tired and weak I could hardly drag myself out of bed. I tried different medicines, but felt no better until I procuced Doan's Kidney Pills at Henry Callan's Drug Store. I took about six boxes in all an dsince then I have had but little trouble from my kidneys and I have felt like a different porson."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dameron had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

As my work takes me to all parts of the mill daily where I have to walk over cinders, slag, etc., it is simply out of the question to buy anything else to take the place of Neolin Soles."

You too—and your whole family—will find Neolin-soled shoes wear long and so save money. You can get them in the styles you like at almost any good shoe store. And any repairman will re-sole your worn shoes with Neolin Soles—scientifically made to be durable, comfortable and waterproof. Special Notice: Dr. Frederick Jacobson says that phosphates are just as essential to any woman who tires easily, is nervous or irritated, worn out or looks haggard and pale, to make a strong, robust, vigorous, healthy body, as they are to make corn, wheat or any vegetable plant grow strong and healthy. The luck of phosphates is the cause of all enemic conditions and the administration of 5-grain Argo-Phosphate Tablets will increase the strength and endurance 500 per cent in a few weeks time in many instances.
